AMEND Senate Bill No. 466

House Bill No. 284*

by deleting from the amendatory language of Section 1(a) the words, figure and symbols “must successfully pass the written examination required by the board within one (1) year of the date of issuance of such temporary license.” and by substituting instead the following:

must take the written examination, required by the board, the first time it is scheduled following issuance of the temporary license. The applicant must successfully pass the exam within two (2) years following issuance of the temporary license.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting the amendatory language of Section 1(c)(2) and by renumbering subsequent subdivisions accordingly.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting the second, third and fourth sentences of the amendatory language of Section 1(d) and by substituting instead the following:

Within such three (3) year period, the applicant must submit to the board an application for the regular license and must present supporting documentation demonstrating the satisfactory completion of the required amount of post-master's degree supervised experience in a clinical setting under an approved supervisor. The board shall then grant or deny the application for the regular license, based on satisfactory completion of all requirements for licensure, including the oral examination. If the board approves or denies the application for the regular license or if the board revokes the temporary license for any reason, then the temporary license shall cease to be valid and must be returned to the board.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting the amendatory language of Section 1(e) and by substituting instead the following:

AMEND Senate Bill No. 466

House Bill No. 284*

(e) The holder of a temporary license as a marital and family therapist shall not represent himself or herself to be a licensed marital and family therapist. The holder of such a license may only represent himself or herself to be a “marital therapy intern”, a “family therapy trainee”, or such other title designation that clearly reflects trainee status and temporary licensure.
